Lewis Brings New Issues Into Coal Strike Negotiations

New Obstacles Hamper Parley On Coal Strike

New Issue On Holiday Pay
Is Raised By Lewis As Negotiations Resume

NO NEW PROGRESS AS YET REPORTED

WASHINGTON, April 30.—(INS)—A fresh obstacle plagued federal mediators today in their efforts to spur negotiations of a soft coal contract to end the 30-day strike of 400,000 miners.

The new issue, a pay dispute involving mine holidays, reportedly was raised by UMW President John L. Lewis as joint union-operator talks resumed after a lapse of 19 days.

Former Assistant Secretary of Labor Edward F. McGrady, special mediator in the coal dispute, was understood to have requested the parties to dispose of the holiday pay controversy in today's meeting.

Temporary Handicap

The new development temporarily balked government efforts to tackle the larger deadlock over safety, health and welfare issues and get the disputants down to the business of making a new contract.

Under a wartime executive order, 30 holidays were figured as time worked in computing overtime. The order was repealed shortly after V-J Day, however, and the last four mine holiday days were not counted as working time by a majority of operators.

Lewis reportedly seeks a pay adjustment for last Labor Day, Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's.

PA NEW OBSERVES

One expert local gardener was looking rather unbelievably in a display window in a downtown market on Monday afternoon, where excellent looking "roasting ears" were on sale.

Backyard weather of April apparently hasn't affected the bird hatching season. Several nests of robins have already been hatched this spring in some sections of the North Hill, Pa. News is told.

Bus drivers are alert. One saw a bicycle in Albert street near Englewood avenue. When it was not wheeled away the driver notified police who now have it at headquarters. It is a Liberty make.

A brave dog was espied by Pa. News, Monday afternoon, riding along the cab of a large truck, as the truck made its way through the city. Evidently used to riding in that manner, the dog seemed quite content not attempting to jump down from its position.

An amusing incident was noticed by Pa. News in his Monday afternoon travels. A large truck load of furniture was passing through the city with two people seemingly packed in with the load peering out from behind the tarpaulin, that covered the furniture.

Lifeboat at police headquarters today was examined by City Mechanic Chris Walker, pronounced in good condition and was returned to police headquarters to be available if water accidents should occur.

Residents of the East Washington street area between Pearson and Oak streets are hoping that the state paving program of Taylor street will get under way soon. Many of the residents who sleep with open windows are disturbed by the large trucks.

New Onslaught Against Black Marketers Opens

Disclose That F. B. I. Is Joining
Forces With O. P. A. Investigators
In New Drive

WASHINGTON, April 30.—(INS)—Growing meat shortages reported mushrooming throughout the country from the nation's capital brought a renewed onslaught against black marketers today by doubled forces of government investigators including Federal Bureau of Investigation agents.

Price Administrator Porter disclosed that the FBI was joining forces with more than 850 OPA investigators from 74 regional offices in the new drive against meat "chiselers" throughout the country.

The drive was said to have been inspired by reports of "worse meat shortages than during the war, and was aimed at upper levels of wholesalers and livestock brokers, rather than mere butcher shops.

G-men were said to be ready to move against slaughterers suspected of falsifying claims for federal subsidies and thereby defrauding the government of public funds.

Meanwhile the army acted to prevent any repetition on wartime food wastes condemned by a special investigating committee in a report released at the height of worldwide juggling of food supplies for famished peoples.

United States Prepares Case Against Spain

NEW YORK, April 30.—(INS)—The United States government today started preparation of its full case against Franco Spain, revolving principally around charges that Madrid's Fascist regime is harboring "22,000 obnoxious Nazis."

American Delegate Edward R. Stettinius, Jr., personally will present this evidence to the special five-power sub-committee of the United Nations Security Council.

It was estimated that approximately 10 days would be required to put all documentation together.

Chief complaint against Generalissimo Francisco Franco will be that Spanish police failed to cooperate in turning up German scientists, financiers, diplomats and militarists whose immediate return to Germany for trial has been requested.

Deaths At Hamburg From Natural Causes

HAMBURG, Pa., April 30.—(INS)—A coroner's investigation showed today that the simultaneous deaths of a 60-year-old Hamburg druggist and his sister in the basement of their store Saturday stemmed from natural causes.

RYE BREAD GRANTED TWO CENTS INCREASE

WASHINGTON, April 30.—(INS)—The OPA today authorized a temporary increase of two cents a pound in the retail price of rye bread. OPA said that the price increase has been granted until June 30. It explained that the boost is subject to the limitation that wholesale ceilings do not exceed twelve cents a pound.

The agency said that the price increase was granted because rye bakers "have been squeezed between sharply advancing rye prices and bread ceilings." It pointed out that rye is the only grain not under price control.

Byrnes Proposes 25-Year Curbs On Germany, Japan

Quarter Century Treaties To Insure Disarmament Of Germany And Japan
Are Urged

OTHER 'BIG FOUR' ISSUES DWARFED

PARIS, April 30.—(INS)—Informed American sources disclosed today that Secretary of State James F. Byrnes' "bombshell" proposal for 25-year treaties to insure disarmament of Germany and Japan call for inclusion of China in supervising Nippon.

France, slated for a leading role in making Germany impotent, was excluded from acting against Japan. It was felt she is not as directly interested as other big five nations in problems concerning Hirohito's empire.

Formal Notes Sent

The same sources said that formal diplomatic notes sent to Britain, China and Russia in regard to Japan were similar to those on Germany sent to the three European powers represented at the big four foreign minister conference in Paris.

The notes were said to propose in each case that the four interested powers enter virtual alliance to guarantee the disarmament of Germany and Japan for at least 25 years after the end of military occupation.

The governments of both countries would then have to accept the disarmament and inspection provisions of the treaties as prerequisites to withdrawal of allied occupation forces.

Dwarfs Other Issues

Byrnes' suggestion brought the glories of the Paris conference to global level. It dwarfed for the moment issues involving five European Axis satellites which had been under consideration.

Byrnes' statement that Premier Stalin had promised to support a treaty to keep Germany impotent underlined the vital nature of the new move.

(London newspapers splashed this news.)

Washington Is Seen Favoring Byrnes' Plan

WASHINGTON, April 30.—(INS)—The proposal of Secretary of State Byrnes for a 25-year treaty to control Germany and Japan was generally received enthusiastically today in Washington.

Congressional, diplomatic and administration leaders regarded the sensational move as a vigorous step forward in insuring that the defeated Axis states will remain disarmed.

Atomic energy development was expected to increase this support as time passes.

Despite the early favorable reaction, however, it was believed that some opposition will develop because of the sensational revision of American foreign policy, traditionally dedicated to "no entangling alliances."

It was known that Byrnes had had the 25-year Big Four treaty under consideration for some time. But it had not been made clear before the secretary left for Paris that he would introduce it at the current foreign ministers meeting.

President Truman, who had given the measure his full endorsement, however, was believed informed that Byrnes would bring it forward if he deemed the time propitious.

It was hoped in Washington that injection of the issue into the Paris meeting will make agreement on some other problems connected with the drafting of peace treaties for the satellite states somewhat easier.

PLANE CAUSES TERROR

MERION, Pa., April 30.—(INS)—Residents of Montgomery county today literally had the number of a stunning airplane which roared over roof tops in a terrifying display of aerial acrobatics.

All officers with 45 months service as of today also are supposed to be addressed as "master" or on their way to separation centers. Enlisted Wacs with two years service and lady "brass" with 36 months Army duty behind them likewise are heading for or already have settled back into civilian life.

Senate Leaders Hope To Speed Up Action On Loan

Must Get Vote By Next Monday
Or Set It Aside For
Other Measures

WASHINGTON, April 30.—(INS)—Administration leaders in a desperate time race studded with opposition hurdles hoped today that this week would see the proposed British loan through the United States senate.

There were authoritative indications that if the $3.4 billion-dollar loan agreement cannot be brought to a final vote by next Monday, senate leaders will feel compelled to set it aside for the draft extension bill—a "must" item. The present draft law expires May 15, just two weeks distant.

Senate Majority Leader Barkley announced that he hoped to begin voting on amendments Thursday. Loan opponents, well aware of the "squeeze" of other legislation, continued what amounted to a near-filibuster.

Their cause was aided by a previous agreement to take up the administration's airport authorization bill at noon today.

Extended debate was certain on this measure—enough at least to leave little time today for trimming the list of remaining speakers on the loan.

Brought Back From China For Carlisle Robbery

Conditions In Europe Revealed

Jewish Women's Conference
Hears Of Great Need Of Displaced Persons

CONFERENCE TO CONCLUDE TODAY

Two outstanding speakers featured the afternoon and evening sessions of the conference of the National Council of Jewish Women in the Carlisle hotel Monday. In the afternoon, Maurice Elgen of the Joint Distribution Service, recently returned from service overseas, was the speaker. In the evening, Rabbi M. Robert Syre, Sharon, was the speaker.

Mr. Elgen spoke upon the work of feeding the displaced persons in Europe. He said he "could not describe the conditions in Europe today. Men and women are dying of starvation. Little children are starving, and few there are in the conquered countries that have more than a few rags to put on their backs."

"The Jews of the conquered countries of Europe need help," said Mr. Elgen. "The other nationalities need help also but our portion of the problem concerns the Jews. They need food, food of all kinds, fats, oils, wheat products if they are to live to see another spring. You have done a fine job thus far but there is much more to do. We can't quit now."

ENGLISH BRIDE ARRIVES BY AIR

Mrs. Jack Groucutt Lands At La
Guardia Air Field This Morning,

U. N. Prepares To Begin Probe Of Franco Spain

Five-Power Committee To Delve Into Charges Against Spain At Once

RUSSIA MAKES
EARLY CHARGES

NEW YORK, April 30.—(INS)—A five-power grand jury today awaited specifications from any or all of the 51 members of the United Nations before putting Franco Spain on trial as an alleged menace to world peace and a Fascist-fostered breeding ground for World War III.

It appeared that, Soviet Russia was ready to throw some immediate dynamite under the serious charges against the Fascist regime of Generalissimo Francisco Franco.

A good thirty-six hours before the United Nations Security Council's special sub-committee was due to start its inquiry, the Moscow radio reported that Moscow was in possession of documents proving that Franco had signed a military alliance with Adolf Hitler in February, 1943.

These documents, according to the government-controlled Russian radio, were seized by Red troops in the final days of the battle of Berlin. It was said over the air that the documents would prove Franco Spain not only was aiding the Axis but had promised to get into the war "at the opportune moment."

Will Start Inquiry

A sub-committee of five Security Council members will start its inquiry into the grave indictment of the Franco regime tomorrow afternoon.

At their organizational meeting yesterday, first action was to invite all of the United Nations "to furnish any helpful material."

By vote of the council, a report must be made back not later than May 31. On the basis of that report, the full council will vote what action (Continued on Page Two)

Report Italian King Plans Abdication

ROME, April 30.—(INS)—Unimpeachable sources disclosed today a growing rift between King Victor Emmanuel and the Prince of Plebiscite over Umberto's acceptance of the referendum on the monarchy and his "continuous practice of giving ground to successive governments."

The falling out was reportedly climaxed in the past few days by a heated argument in the Monarch's Neapolitan Gulf villa.

The King was said to have declared he would abdicate before June 2, thus leaving Umberto to shoulder the full responsibility of the throne for an eventual unfavorable public pronouncement.

Pittsburgh Has Skyscraper Fire

Bell Expansion Work Progresses

Cable Line Will Be Constructed Out East Washington Street This Year

$58,000 BEING SPENT LOCALLY

Approximately $58,000 is being expended in New Castle and vicinity to provide better telephone service and to care for those now on the waiting list of the Bell Telephone company. Nathan N. Jaquish, local manager stated today.

Facilities at the local central office are being expended at a cost of $35,000, and in addition $23,000 will be spent on construction of wire and cable lines, with work to be finished late this year.

Many persons on the waiting list cannot be accommodated because there is no wire available to connect them with the central office.

The supply of telephone instruments is being steadily increased, however, Mr. Jaquish pointed out. The new wire and cable line scheduled for construction will be installed underground along East Washington street, between the central office and Hazel avenue, and will make it possible to connect more telephones in the area.

Between Butler avenue and East Washington street, it will also provide facilities for telephone service in the Eastbrook road, Harlansburg road, County Line road, Butler road, and Ellwood City road areas.

Since the end of the war, Mr. Jaquish stated, 763 new applications have been received, with 1,207 names having been removed from the waiting list, which totalled 1,213 when the war ended. There are still 769 persons waiting for service.

Similar conditions exist throughout the country.

Green Charges C.I.O. Dominated By Communists

WASHINGTON, April 30.—(INS)—The CIO was expected to take up today a charge by AFL President William Green that the rival labor organization was "dominated by foreign interests."

Green widened the breach between the two labor groups by asserting that Communists "occupy important places" in the CIO and declaring that the AFL will "ride roughshod" over any opposition in its drive to organize southern workers.

Both the labor organizations have announced plans for southern campaigns.

The AFL chief launched a bitter attack against the CIO in speaking before the bi-annual convention of the AFL's United Textile Workers. He declared that "nothing—I care not what, a little or a big CIO—is going to stop us in our onward march."

In leveling his charges of communism against the CIO, Green said that "because those who take orders from abroad are shaping the policies of the rival labor movement, some groups are coming back home to the AFL."

REPORT PLOT AGAINST GEN. M'ARTHUR'S LIFE UNCOVERED IN TOKYO

tion, received a tip about the planned assassination from an unnamed informant.

Creswell said he did not know whether the plotters were connected with the May Day demonstration in which 300,000 Japanese plan to demonstrate outside Emperor Hirohito's palace, which is across the street from MacArthur's supreme allied headquarters.

The five-starred general leaves and enters his headquarters daily without guard.

When the May Day plot was uncovered today, MacArthur's headquarters announced:

"The supreme commander again refused to permit any precautions to be taken for the protection of his life."

Creswell, in announcing discovery of the plot, refused to say whether the informant was a man or woman, or to hint whether the assassin ring was linked with any political group.

Obscure Character

The civil intelligence chief declared he did not know whether Tokayama, the ring leader now being hunted, had any political affiliation.

Tokayama was described by Creswell as "an obscure character never heard of before. I don't know where he lives."

Other sources declared that Tokayama attended the notorious Kempeitai secret police school.

Creswell said that first word of the plot was passed to the army's civil intelligence section four days ago by the informant. The officer declared he does not intend to stop the May Day demonstration tomorrow, pointing out that this was the third MacArthur assassination plot reported since the supreme commander established his headquarters in Tokyo.

American military police will stand by as observers of the demonstration, but Japanese police will be responsible for controlling it.

Revealed By Plotter

Tokyo, April 30.—(INS)—A plot to assassinate General Douglas MacArthur during the confusion of Japan's May Day celebrations tomorrow was revealed today by one of the plotters, who was almost fatally poisoned by suspicious cohorts.

The ringleader of the assassin group was identified as Hideo Takayama, a graduate of the Japanese police school in Korea.

The poisoned Japanese plotter, now under custody in an American hospital, said Takayama was well supplied with money and weapons to carry out his attack.

MacArthur was to have been assassinated when he walked to his automobile from his headquarters during the height of the communist inspired May Day celebrations.

Figures of Takayama were circulated by the Japanese police system after the poisoned plotter told his story in an American hospital, where he is now recovering.

OVER SEVEN MILLION SOLDIERS RETURNED TO LIFE AS CIVILIANS

one-half years service totalled two million, 200 thousand under the demobilization plan.

Affected Since Last Winter

Affected since last winter were an estimated 500,000 soldiers in the Pacific; 400,000 in Europe; 400,000 from other areas overseas or already en route home; and 900,000 on duty in the United States.

Volunteers and small numbers of military personnel in scarce personnel with required length of service for discharge still are in the Army, however.

It was pointed out that the Army already is dipping into its pool of men with two years service as of June 30, 1946 in rounding out the demobilization program.

Over 7,000,000 Returned

The discharge goal of two million, 200 thousand by today was surpassed by more than 27,000. Since V-E day, more than seven million soldiers have been returned to civilian life.

From a May 12, 1945 strength of eight million, 300 thousand the Army decreased in net strength to 2,300,000 as of April 1.

It was recalled that the Army chief of staff in announcing to Congress the discharge schedule for two and one-half years veterans expressed grave concern over the outcome.

Close Margin

He remarked about "how close the margin is between the efficient performance of duties and virtual abandonment of them."

The close of the program comes with Eisenhower en route to the Pacific to check up on conditions there.

Manpower reductions now underway will bring the Army down to the required strength of one million, 500 thousand by July 1.

BYRNES PROPOSES 25-YEAR CURBS ON GERMANY, JAPAN

black headlines today to indicate Britain's apparent enthusiasm for Byrnes' surprising maneuver. No editorial comment was offered, but the Daily Express said in a typical headline:

"America will not drop Europe!"

Parisian circles regarded the proposed treaties as constituting the most important step American foreign policy has taken in many years. The proposals would commit the U. S. to active peace-time intervention in European and far eastern affairs—a commitment America has never before been willing to promise.

Immediate reaction among delegates to the Paris talks indicated that Byrnes' suggestion in regard to Germany will be accepted in principle by Britain and France.

Russians V. M. Molotov, however, declared the future disarmament of Germany is of secondary importance to the immediate necessity of crippling her of war-making facilities.

The treaty proposed by the U. S. consists of a preamble and five articles. The first follows roughly the disarmament and demobilization clauses of the Potsdam agreement, but includes a sentence which would bar Germany from "all fashionable materials for any purpose except under conditions approved by the high contracting parties."

Allied Commission

The second article would provide an allied control commission to make sure there are no violations of terms of the first article.

Articles 3, 4 and 5 stipulate arrangements for joint action by the big four if violations do occur, and all for the signatory powers to keep the treaty in force for 25 years after the present military occupation of Germany.

One provision specifies that any joint action against Germany must be reported immediately to the United Nations Security Council.

Byrnes said the U. S. had decided to take the history-making step when he, together with President Truman and after consultations with senate leaders, concluded it was necessary to end the feeling of insecurity caused by fear that America would pull out of Europe and the far east.

He said he had discussed the matter with Premier Stalin in Moscow last week, and that the Russian leader had assured him of hearty support of the plan.

GI Tells How His Compositions Aid Air Raid Victims

Corporal's Tune 'Air Battle' Found To Aid In Treatment Of Air Shock

CAMP CARSON, Colo.—(INS)—An idea that lasted a year, plus five minutes of work, saved Corp. Sanford Hertz an original accordion composition, "The Air Battle."

It has not only received international acclaim, but has proved invaluable for English medics in curing air shock.

Hertz, now Camp Carson individual services division entertainer, says the composition began as an idea when he was rehearsing a 150-piece accordion section which was a part of a 1,001-piece accordion band.

A discord produced an amazing replica of the sound of airplane motors. A year later, after much thought, Hertz composed "The Air Battle" in five minutes.

It was recorded by an English company, from a master recording sent to Britain through Washington. Twenty thousand copies were sold in the first week, and English physicians saw its value.

Patients suffering from air raid shock, were placed in a chair, and supplied with earphones through which they listened to the realistic strains of the recording. After an initial shock, the patients reviewed the emotions they felt in the raids, and their condition improved.

The composition combines the noise of pursuit ships, the Morse code, bombs being released from bomb-bay doors, machine gun bullets and power dives.

Hertz has composed six symphonies, one of which, "The Symphony of Life" has been published.

Tomorrow brings in the month of May, and hopes for more seasonal spring weather for flower garden enthusiasts, as well as vegetable gardeners of the locality.

Quite a number of new places of business are being erected along main highway routes in this section. Pa New is told, evidently indicating preparedness for the much increased tourist trade expected during the coming summer.

Younger Voting Groups Silent

Little Heard From Young Republican And Democratic Organizations In State

OTHER NEWS OF STATE AFFAIRS

HARRISBURG, April 30.—(INS)—Pennsylvania's young Republican and Democratic organizations have been unusually silent thus far during the primary election campaign.

The youth groups have been overshadowed by the activities of the parent organizations.

Leaders of the young Republican clubs of Pennsylvania, headed by Frank Hilton, of Womelsdorf, have held several meetings and recommended the appointment of subcommittees on veterans and labor.

No committees have been announced, however, since the meetings several months ago.

Party chiefs apparently bowed to the requests of both youth organizations for the inclusion of veterans on the organization tickets for the May 21 primary election.

Democratic leaders have slated Sgt. Al Schmid blind Philadelphia marine hero, for secretary of internal affairs, while Republican chiefs selected Brig. Gen. Daniel B. Strickler of Lancaster, as the candidate for lieutenant governor.

Both Schmid and Strickler were expected to make determined bids to capture the votes of the large bloc of former service men for their tickets.

Throughout the rotunda and corridors of the first floor of the main capitol building in Harrisburg is a richly colored pavement interspersed with more than 400 tile mosaics.

The mosaics suggest animals and birds as well as industries, occupations and modes of travel common at one time in the Keystone state.

The Pennsylvania Chiefs of Police Association bulletin has reported "the fact that the average American city still has about one-third of its total police strength on foot patrol indicates that the auto has not yet modified the time-honored foot patrol system."

Foot patrol is still needed in areas where sight of a uniform is an excellent crime deterrent—areas where pool rooms, saloons, and similar places of amusement cater to a low-class clientele.

The State Agriculture Department has announced that ruffin, the new drug which reduces high blood pressure, can be provided from green buckwheat plants at about $1 a pound.

The drug, which until recently had been obtained from tobacco, had cost up to $135 a pound, the department added.

Clarence M. England, chairman of the arrangements committee was in charge.

Chairmen reported that the arrangements for the Cathedral were completed the orchestra had been arranged for the dance the floor show from Pittsburgh had been ordered, and the committee upon refreshments reported that they would be prepared to serve light refreshments to the veterans on the night of the Welcome Home.

The Welcome Home is a joint affair, sponsored by civic, fraternal and official groups. It is for every man and woman who served in the armed forces during the war. The county will be represented by Judge W. Walter Braham and the city by Mayor John F. Haven, both of whom will speak.

Checks of several organizations have not been received as yet. All organizations contributing to the Welcome Home are asked to send their checks to Ralph Andino, treasurer, care of the Greater New Castle Association.

Meetings To Be Secret

Paul Hasluck, New Australian delegate as a result of Lt. Col. W. R. Hodgson's enforced departure to the bedside of his ill wife in Paris, had been designated chairman of the fact-finding sub-committee.

Hasluck announced that initial meetings of the inquiry board would be secret—although he promised communications after each.

At an "early date," the inquiry would go into the open, he promised, but added that obviously some of the evidence received would have to be of a "secret nature."

Soviet Goes Along

Appointment of the inquiry committee—a compromise move—was made possible when Soviet Delegate Andrei Gromyko announced yesterday that, although he did not approve, he would abstain from voting and refrain from raising the question of his veto right.

Up to the last minute, Gromyko held out for an immediate and collective severance of diplomatic relations with Spain, claiming that the Security Council already was in possession of sufficient evidence to warrant such a move.

Don Ferguson acted as M. C. Following some introductory "acquainted" games, the singers were seated at tables decorated with natural spring flowers and unusual artificial ones made from vegetables.

Suggests OPA Use Veterans In Drive On Black Markets

Hearing On OPA Extension Being Conducted By Committee
Of Senate

WASHINGTON, April 30.—(INS)—The Senate received a proposal Monday that OPA enlist veterans in a drive against black markets as the American Federation of Labor and 23 other national organizations urged extension of price control "without any crippling amendments."

Sen. Murdock (D) Utah, declared that increased personnel should be made available to OPA and that the agency might well "employ veterans who are suffering from the black market" in such an enforcement campaign.

The suggestion was made at a Senate Banking committee hearing on OPA extension.

Need More Enforcement
William Green, AFL president, agreed with Murdock that greater enforcement would be a step in the right direction, adding:

"Weakening or repeal of OPA would be surrendering to the black market."

At the same time, Sen. Capehart (R) charged that the principle of the government paying 30 cents a bushel premium on wheat and corn, while other consumers are held to ceiling prices, "is the same as dealing in the black market."

Sen. Taylor (D) Idaho, and Murdock promptly challenged Capehart's statement declaring that the government's policy was dictated by the question of "whether or not we're going to let people in Europe starve."

Puts U. S. In Critical Spot

Capehart said that the corn processing industry and livestock feeders face a critical situation because of the government's premium payment program. He pointed out that while the government was going above price ceilings on corn "it's illegal for me to pay 30 cents premium to get corn to feed hogs on farm in Indiana."

Green opened the day's series of demands for a one year extension of OPA with a charge that House revisions of the House legislation were "deliberately designed to amend price control to death."

He was followed by Caroline F. Ware, speaking for 23 organizations with a membership of more than 15 million Americans, who declared that the House approved bill "positively invited inflation."

Sgt. Budea Johns Writes Of Life On Guam Island Post

Sergeant Budea Johns of New Castle, who in the past has been a frequent correspondent to The News with his sketches of a soldier's life in the Pacific, now informs us that he has been transferred from two miles to the naval station of Guam.

"We moved down here on an inter-island transport. This time seasickness wasn't mine, thank goodness. There is nothing out of the ordinary here. Guam is a bit of American slums set in a scene of tropical splendor. Beyond that there is nothing to say. Trees, rain and heat, perpetually yours for free. I'll trade it all for a few feet of Long avenue."

Sergeant Johns wishes he were in Pennsylvania to usher in the spring weather, but says his fate is the "aftermath of war." He hopes to find everything as he left it when he returns and wishes that more of his friends would write him a few lines more often. Letters help to break the monotony of the existence on this far-flung outpost.

MY TIME IS YOUR TIME

Before Judge W. Walter Braham upon a special allocution, the case of Sam Barlingo of Youngstown, O., was heard Monday morning. Mr. Barlingo took out a non-resident hunting license last fall and upon the license card was the statement "all hours based upon Eastern War Time."

On November 1, 1945, Mr. Barlingo with some friends was hunting in Mahoning township, at about 8:30 Eastern Standard Time or 9:30 Eastern War Time. Hunting was permitted by the Game Commission from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. but Mr. Barlingo thought this meant what the card said, "Eastern War Time," which if correct put him inside the hourly requirements.

He was arrested by Game Protector James McClure and before an alderman was fined $25 and $2.13 costs. This he protests is not right and the court heard the testimony Monday. Decision will be handed down later.

EASTERN STANDARD TIME

The courts will operate on Eastern Standard Time Judge W. Walter Braham announced on Monday but courts will open at eight o'clock instead of nine. This will put the courts in line with Daylight Savings Time without changing the clocks.

PETER DUDLEY PAROLED

Peter Dudley in jail since January 1, 1946 for involuntary manslaughter was paroled on Monday. He had served four months of a six months sentence.

MICCO VS. GREGG—AGAIN

Once again the Mahoning township election tangle in the election ship election tangle is before the court. On Monday counsel for Anthony Micco filed a petition asking that the certificate of election awarded to Francis Gregg be recalled and one awarded to Anthony Micco by reason of the fact that Micco received 244 votes and Gregg 241 votes.

The case has been before the court a number of times but this is the first time it has been asked that Micco be declared the winner.

Production Is Prosperity Key

PITTSBURGH, April 30.—(INS)—President Breckinridge Long today told 700 railroad and industrial executives that the key to prosperity in the nation is the same as the key to victory in war—production.

The former commanding general of the army service forces paid high tribute to the work of the nation's railroads in moving vital supplies and troops during the war. He said the railroads can take pride in their contribution to America's victory.

Multitude Of Questions Answered By G.N.C.A.

Where can I get an apartment?
Can you recommend a factory site?
Have you any record of the Jones family that lived here in 1876?
When do we start on daylight savings time and do we turn the clock backward or forward an hour?
These are a few samples of the questions answered daily in the office of the Greater New Castle Association. Anything from nylons to bass drums and from lost dogs to bridge parties.

Information Center
The G.N.C.A. has become an information center a civic gathering place, a spark plug that functions in all civic affairs. And J. C. Wachman, executive vice president, thinks that it is as it should be.
"The G.N.C.A. is the agency of New Castle citizens," said he. "Naturally we get a lot of questions that have little to do with the general welfare of the city but we get a lot more that are. Engineers surveying the city as a possible site for an industry come in and get statistics upon the population, the schools, recreational facilities, taxes, improved streets, housing conditions, bank deposits, postal receipts, highway and railway facilities and we have the answers."

By letter, by telephone and in person the queries pour in, and a few months spent in the clerical force of the G.N.C.A. office is equivalent to a couple of years education in New Castle and its background.

The city is fortunate in having such an organization. It centralizes information, gets the answers to applicants quickly and for eight hours every business day is busy selling New Castle to the outside world.

Joins Army To Solve Financial Worries Of Family

Father Of Ten Children Makes Army Service Provide Big Pay Raise

HAMILTON FIELD, Calif., April 30.—(INS)—A father of ten children today solved his financial worries over raising his large family—he enlisted in the Army and will receive $315.96 per month as a buck private.

He is James L. Triplett Sr., 39, of Vallejo, Calif.

Triplett is no newcomer to the Army. An ex-sergeant, he enlisted at Baltimore, Md., in 1923 and served until 1934 when he decided to try civilian life.

During the war he worked as a civilian employee at the Mare Island Navy Yard.

Takes Stock Of Finances
Recently, however, Triplett took stock of his own finances and found that although he was making $57.50 a week gross the "take home" pay was only $45 a week.

By comparison, the Army Air Force offered him $50 per month base pay, $7.50 for previous service, $20.76 monthly rations money, a monthly allotment of $28 for his wife, $30 per month for his first child and $20 per month for each of the other nine children.

In addition, the Triplett family will receive complete medical care, may purchase household goods at a 30 per cent discount through the Army post exchange and save 15 to 20 per cent in food costs by purchases through the Army commissary.

CONSUMERS SPEND AT RECORD RATE

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Consumers were spending at a record rate of $120,000,000,000 for goods and services during the first three months of this year the Commerce Department reported.

The rate of expenditures, on an annual basis, represented an increase of $20,000,000,000 over the second quarter of 1945.

The department said price rises were responsible for part of the increase. Another factor was demobilization.

Damages On Sampson St. Are Discussed

City Has Problem When County Sets $5,000 Limit On Amount To Be Contributed

Pessimism was written on the faces of Mayor John F. Haven and council colleagues Monday when Lawrence County commissioners, meeting jointly in city hall, told council that they could contribute only $5,000, toward damages on the Sampson street end of Route 422, to be improved by the state. The city had requested a contribution of $16,000.

The city in a petition to the commissioners pointed out that, under a state law, the county may give financial help on such improvements.

During the session, city officials developed that, the city will be required to pay as its share of cost for improving Butler avenue extension, Taylor and Neal streets, about $30,000.

They said that the city's construction cost of improving the north, or Sampson street section of the new (422) route, would be $14,000, without damages.

Damages Are Foreseen

City officials pointed out there will be damages, that the state cannot pay, damages within the city and, being without available funds, therefore, petitioned the county to provide $16,000, which the council said may be done legally, according to state law.

The commissioners replied that, if the damages amount to $10,000, or more, the county would contribute $5,000, and, if the damages are less than $10,000, the county would pay only 50 per cent of the amount.

The city pointed out that council had not asked for help on the south, or Butler avenue-Taylor and Neal street section in which the city already has expended about $4,000.

Mayor Haven, in fact all councilmen, stated, in brief, that relative to the north end of Sampson street section: "We are not prepared for it, no appropriation having been made."

It was stated by city officials, the city did not sponsor the Sampson street improvement, hence the lack of preparation in the budget. Council was unanimous in believing they had done their share in taking care of the city's cost ($30,000) on the south end of the new route.

The commissioners stated they have only $15,000 in gasoline tax refunded by the state. Finance Director Hoyland said he anticipated the county would receive an additional $30,000, yet this year.

Reveal Soldier Acted Heroically In A-Bomb Research

Soldier Who Saved Three Victims In Chemical Explosion Given Soldier Medal

WASHINGTON, April 30.—(INS)—An explosion in Philadelphia connected with development of the atomic bomb was revealed today by the war department.

The war department made this disclosure in announcing award of the soldier's medal to Technician Third Grade John D. Hoffman, of Chevy Chase, Md.

The announcement said that the medal was "withheld during the war because of the secrecy of the atomic bomb."

Hoffman received the award from Maj. Gen. Leslie R. Groves, chief of the atomic bomb project, for saving "three victims of a violent explosion in a building used for hazardous chemical experiments" at the naval research laboratory in the Philadelphia navy yard.

The action occurred on September 2, 1944. Hoffman, who will be discharged from the army tomorrow, later was assigned to Oak Ridge, Tenn., and the University of Chicago. His citation said in part: "His quick and courageous actions under chaotic conditions were indicative of heroism in the highest degree."

Details of the explosion were not immediately available. A spokesman said that a gas which he was unable to identify escaped into the installation after its pressure ruptured the seam of the cylinder in which it was contained.

About $42,000,000,000 was given by the U. S. to its Allies in lend-lease goods and services.

REPORT 16 NEW POLIO CASES IN STATE THIS YEAR

HARRISBURG, April 30.—(INS)—The State Health Department reported today that 16 cases of infantile paralysis have been reported since January 1, compared with 14 cases of the disease in the same period last year.

"There's nothing startling about both sets of figures," a spokesman explained. "At this time you can't predict what kind of a year we will have. We usually get the first flurries of activity about the 15th of June."

He said that five cases were reported in Lackawanna county, three in York, and one each in Allegheny, Carbon, Centre, Clarion, Fayette, Lancaster, Philadelphia and Schuylkill.

Last year, he added, 747 cases of polio were reported in the state while 1478 cases were reported in

$1 On Realty Record Not Purchase Price

Your neighbor has just sold his house. How much did he get for it? It's a question the rest of the neighbors would like to know but the realty transfer shows $1.

Now, of course, he didn't sell it for one dollar, he may have gotten $6,000 or $26,000 for it, but the transfer reads $1.

On the deed it reads $1 and other valuable consideration, which really means a bundle of folding money but neither the seller nor the buyer wants to make the amount public.

The seller can mention casually that he got "in the neighborhood of $15,000" for his house. That's a nice neighborhood anytime and perhaps he did. But what he means by the neighborhood might mean a block away. Or the purchaser wanting to make a showing among the boys in the back room can mention a cool $18,000.

The idea of the $1 is, of course, to keep folks from knowing what the transaction was in money. Of course, if your curiosity is such that you must know, the tax stamps can be checked on the deed. If the price is under $100 there aren't any stamps affixed. For every $1000 of sale price, there must be $1.10 worth of tax stamps affixed to the deed so you can come pretty close to getting the figure.

It would be possible to affix more stamps than the deed called for if you wanted to do it but the tax man might take a look and get the idea the property was worth more than it had been assessed for.

Then there is the deed which says the property was transferred for "natural love and affection." No stamps required there. The only place they tax love and affection is in the marriage license bureau.

But to sum it up, the $1 marked on the transfer is a polite way of telling you that it isn't any of your business what the property brought.

CHECK CORN PLANTER FOR ACCURATE SPACING

Since many corn planters like other farm machines, are continuing in service beyond their normal life expectancy because of the shortage of new machines, farmers are urged to examine and make any necessary adjustments to their machines to assure accurate spacing and uniform number of kernels per hill.

Accurate planting has a direct effect on yield, and for best performance planters sometimes require considerable attention. They need to be well lubricated and moving parts tried to their proper positions. Any rust or dirt should be removed from seed plates and fertilizer distributors.

The condition of the runners will determine uniformity of penetration. If worn, they should be replaced. Depth gauge wheels or shoes should be used on each runner when planting on the contour or in fields with varying soil conditions.

Parcels Can Now Be Sent To Poland Postal Order Says

Gift Parcels Can Now Be Sent As Aid To Indigent Persons And Charitable Institutions

According to word received by Postmaster William R. Hanna, from the postmaster general, the postal administration of Poland, has advised that gift parcels, as an aid to indigent persons and charitable institutions, can now be sent there.

These parcels may contain new or used clothing, shoes, food, and other articles of daily use, including medicines, and will be admitted without customs duty or import restriction. A handling fee of 10 zlotys is charged on each parcel.

In addition to articles which are prohibited from being sent to European countries in general it is specifically prohibited to send to Poland, weapons, medicines containing narcotics, artificial sweetening, yeast, vinegar, printed matter, playing cards, or labels without merchandise.

In order to be admitted duty free, gift parcels cannot contain more than two ounces of tobacco, two-fifths of an ounce of snuff, fifty cigarettes, or 20 cigars.

Because of the long distance to be shipped, and the danger of rough handling, such packages must be very securely wrapped.

Postmaster Asked To Aid Lovelorn

Several Odd Requests Are Received In Mail Last Week By Postmaster Hanna Here

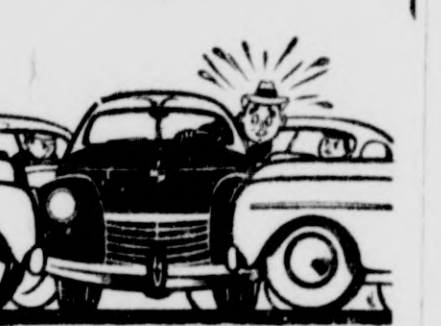

In addition to seeing that the residents of New Castle get the best possible postal service, Postmaster William R. Hanna gets letters from folks containing many odd requests. Last week, a letter came from a young woman residing in Italy, who says she is not much up on English. She describes herself as being 22 years of age, and of medium height. She is a universalist, residing in Naples, and will be glad to give her "photography" in return for a letter. Postmaster Hanna plans to turn this letter over to some of the Italian society auxiliaries.

Another letter comes from one Henry Newman, of Niles, Mich., and asks the postmaster help locate a girl he had met here, but whose address he once had and had lost. He says she was a blond, and weighed 125 pounds. Postmaster Hanna is now casting inquiring glances at all blonds who answer the general description.

Building Addition To Piggie Bank Plant

Small West Side Project Has Developed Into Sizable Industry In Less Than Year

What started out last August, in the cellar of William J. Ayers, 1106 West Washington street, as a mere plaster paris model hobby, has turned into a business that takes the full time of 29 employees, working two shifts, to supply "piggie banks" for customers as far west as Wisconsin, east into the New England states and deep into the southland.

An inquisitive reporter stopped off at the old White school house, at the end of the West Side bus line, which is the new location of the expanded "piggie bank" business, and was amazed at the activity that was going on inside the building which once housed earnest students who were seeking out an education.

Instead of neat rows of desks, with a solemn teacher keeping order, soiled work benches surrounded by busy employees with Mr. Ayers directing the work greeted the eyes of the reporter.

Making 700 Daily According to Mr. Ayers, who is the owner of the business, the "piggie bank" idea is original with him with mud, that it could not be removed without destroying the nest. There were no eggs within. Nature is doubtless retarding the egg-laying period, for when the young have been hatched, there must be insects for the parents to secure to feed the fledglings. Many nests have been built but they are still empty.

Many Nests But Few Eggs At Gaston Park

Mr. Fox states that mourning doves are already nesting, and sitting on eggs at Gaston park; they feed their young grain and particles of food secured from the ground.

WHO SHOULD CHOOSE YOUR CONGRESSMAN?

Voters in the 25th district are asking—and properly so—"Who should choose the congressman—and how should he be chosen?"

Should he be the selection of the voters at the polls—or should he be the selection of a little group of men, interested in politics for the possible dividends that might come later? Should Republican voters pick their own nominee—or should he be hand picked by a select few?"

There is no organized group of politicians backing the candidacy of William C. Seltzer for the Republican nomination for Congress. He has the support of men and women in this district who believe in the right of voters to make their own selection—who believe a primary should be an honest open affair, wherein any person qualified can offer himself as a candidate, without having first gotten the back room endorsement of a little group of men, who have arrogated to themselves the right of selection for the mass of the voters.

William C. Seltzer believes in the independence of the voter. If you believe you have a right to choose your own congressman, you will vote for him on Tuesday, May 21st.

Rotarians Hear Hospital Head

Advances Being Made In Hospital Practice Explained
By C. R. Youngquist

TELLS OF WORK
OF DEPARTMENTS

C. R. Youngquist, Administrator of the James Memorial Hospital, gave an interesting talk to members of the Rotary Club, in connection with their luncheon meeting in The Castleton, Monday noon, explaining the functions of the various departments of the hospital, and of the advances which are being made in methods of treatment.

In recent months, a radiologist and pathologist have been added to the hospital, giving local doctors better service in the treatment of their patients.

He explained the service rendered by all departments, much of which was unknown to even those who have a fairly close connection with the hospital.

Also added to the hospital facilities for the treatment of cancer, through the interest of the Lawrence county society, has been a cancer diagnosis machine, which eliminates possibility of human error and completes tests much faster than a pathologist could in the past, a quantity of radium for treatment of cancer and other diseases.

Become Medical Centers
He predicted that sometime in the future that hospitals would become medical centers, with physicians having their offices located immediately adjacent to the hospital, where patients could visit specialists in the diagnosis of their ailments. Some day, he stated, it is hoped a clinic can be established, where those unable to afford expensive treatment can receive the same care as those better able to pay.

Hospital insurance is now held by 21,000,000 persons in the United States, he stated, giving many the advantage of hospital care that had not received it in the past.

In years gone by, patients were not taken to the hospital for treatment until their condition had become critical, resulting in a high mortality rate, and morbid dread on the part of the public in going there. This has now been changed, and people go there as soon as possible for treatment and surgery, averting trouble at their start.

At the present time, he stated, there is a waiting list of 175 patients at the James Memorial hospital, and some relief is expected to be afforded by the conversion of the solarium into ten-bed ward.

New Industry Seen In Making Of Rutin Drugs

HARRISBURG — (INS) — A new industry may develop in Pennsylvania as a result of a recent discovery that green buckwheat was a source of rutin, a drug used to relieve persons afflicted with high blood pressure.

State Secretary of Agriculture Miles Horst reported the grain contained four per cent of the drug and predicted that there would be an expanded acreage of the crop in Pennsylvania, the nation's greatest buckwheat producer.

"Demand for rutin is increasing and since Pennsylvania produces more buckwheat than any other state, drying plants in buckwheat areas may bring new revenues to farmers," Horst said.

"Rutin is a bright yellow non-toxic powder extracted from the plant with alcohol," he explained. "According to observations at the medical school of the University of Pennsylvania, rutin is effective in the treatment of conditions arising from high blood pressure associated with increased capillary fragility," Horst stated.

"Research has also disclosed that rutin could serve the circulatory system in a manner resembling the action of vitamin in the growth and hardness of teeth and bones," he added.

ELUSIVE HOUSES

ASTORIA, Ore. — (INS) — Houses are even more elusive in Astoria than they are anywhere else these days. Six homes are sliding at the rate of an inch a day down a hillside in Astoria, and little can be done about it. Flexible sewer and water connections were set up to follow the traveling domiciles.

ALUMINUM BUNGALOWS

Soviets Converting Arctic Sea Routes

NEW YORK, April 30 — (INS) — Radio Moscow announced today a Soviet plan to convert Arctic sea routes into "regular" lanes in which an all-weather, year-round fleet will be able to operate by 1950.

The program specifies regular sailing schedules maintained by specially-equipped Arctic transports based at modernized ports.

The report said survey ships are now charting a sixty thousand square-mile area where frigid temperatures hampered the wartime flow of American lend-lease equipment.

NBC monitored the Russian broadcast.

People To Enjoy Television Within Three Years Period

One of the most enjoyable features yet held by the Pennsylvania Power company's Men's club, of which Fred Beard is president, was when L. S. McLeod, district manager of the Home Radio division, of Westinghouse Electric company, spoke on "Television from the Stratosphere" which was supplemented by colored slides.

The speaker estimated that about 78 per cent of the people in America would enjoy television in about three years, or as soon as manufacturers could make necessary receiving sets. At present there are only 7,500 television sets in the country, 5,000 of which are in New York area.

Television by stratosphere is a practical peace-time application of war-born radar. It is a simple idea, a plan to rebroadcast and relay television and FM programs from planes flying 30,000 feet above the earth. Each such plane-borne transmitter will cover 500 miles across and reception within the area will be practically free from interference and distortion.

Young Man Is Inventor

Preceding Mr. McLeod illustrated talk, the premiere showing of a film titled, "Summer Storm," dramatized the story of our dependence on electrical energy in daily activities and how an electric company marshals its men and equipment to make sure these activities continue without interruption. The nationally-known Westinghouse quartet delighted with their singing.

Among those present were W. B. Montague, manager of the Sales Promotion division, of Westinghouse, who explained that television from the stratosphere was invented by a Westinghouse engineer named Charles E. Nobles, who is only 27 years of age and a graduate of Texas A. & M.

At the conclusion of the affair, Vice President and General Manager L. B. Round thanked the Westinghouse for the presentation of their excellent program.

Conjecture Rife On Disposition Of Italian Fleet

PARIS, April 30 — (INS) — High official quarters denied Monday a report that the United States will receive only one per cent of Italy's former fighting fleet.

Instead, the U. S. Britain, France and the USSR each is expected to receive about one-fourth above what Italy is allowed to retain, plus that granted to Yugoslavia and Greece.

Yesterday's report, however, served to arouse the widest speculation on the part of the French press and public. The Big Four foreign ministers conference refused as yet to reveal the figures agreed upon for disposal of Mussolini's former navy.

Conjecture Rife

Conjecture was rife as to who will get what of the Italian navy. The report that the Big Four powers will share about equally was regarded as a victory for France, which under Russia's original three-way division would have received little or nothing.

It also is deemed a victory for the western powers' desire to preserve major naval strength.

Under the plan agreed upon Saturday, the three western powers would receive three-fourths as compared with two-thirds under the former plan, informants said.

Officials disclosed that the United States favors scrapping all of Italy's uncompleted or damaged vessels, as completing or repairing of the craft involves further expense. This would raise the question of whether the U. S. is to pour still more money into Italy.

COLLEGEVILLE — The Ursinus College's girls' softball team has not been defeated since 1941. Their latest victory was a 32-1 triumph over Albright College.

U. S. Revenue Figures Given

More Income Tax Being Paid
— Less Beer Drinking
Than During 1945

OTHER FACTS SHOWN
BY TAX FIGURES

WASHINGTON, April 30 — (INS) — Americans this year are paying more income tax, imbibing more hard liquor, and playing more cards, but snuffing less snuff and drinking less beer than they did in 1945.

The Treasury department's comparative statement of internal revenue collection for March of this year as compared with the same month last year so disclosed today.

Numerous other significant disclosures were contained in the statistics, such as sharp increases in the number of cigars and cigarettes available, heavy rises in automobile and tire taxes, and decreases in such items as photographic equipment, oleomargarine, and, oddly enough, gasoline taxes.

The corporation income tax figure for March, 1946, was one billion six million 371 thousand dollars, as compared with 991 million 852 thousand dollars for March, 1945.

Individual Income Taxes
Individual incomes taxes paid in March of this year totaled one billion 882 million 728 thousand dollars and the figure for March, 1945, was one billion 760 million 95 thousand dollars.

Revenues from liquors in March, 1946, was 212 million 321 thousand dollars as compared with 176 million 877 thousand dollars for March of last year.

This included a total of 14 million 779 thousand gallons of domestic distilled spirits and 13 million 451 thousand gallons of rectified spirits for March, 1946. The comparative figures for March, 1945, were 11 million 37 thousand and nine million 488 thousand gallons, respectively.

Total Internal Revenue

The total internal revenue for March, 1946, was five billion 23 million 693 thousand dollars, a slight drop from the March, 1945, figure, which was five billion 617 million 606 thousand dollars.

The drop was reflected in gasoline taxes—24 million 743 thousand dollars in March of this year as compared with 34 million 898 thousand dollars in the same month of last year, and smoking and chewing tobacco, down from four million 141 thousand dollars to two million 715 thousand dollars.

Standard-size cigarettes were up from 18 billion 679 million 252 thousand in the 1945 revenue figures to 26 billion 401 million 275 thousand this year.

Excess Profits Down

Excess profits were decidedly down. The figures: declared value, 1945—13 million 112 thousand dollars, and 1946—eight million 782 thousand. Excess profits under the Revenue acts of 1940-41-42 were down from two billion 199 million 639 thousand dollars in 1945 to one billion 268 million 220 thousand dollars in 1946.

Revenue sources showing considerable increases included sporting goods, musical instruments, refrigerators, electric light bulbs and tubes, radio sets and jewelry—all indicative of the nation's gradual switch to peacetime economy.

New By-Product Of Atomic Bomb Ready For Usage

Radioactive Isotopes Promise To Solve Age-Old Riddles
Of Disease

WASHINGTON, April 30 — (INS) — Distribution soon of the first by-product of atomic bomb production promised today to solve age-old riddles of disease and pave the way for new industries.

A leading scientist said that heretofore scarcely explored fields can be tackled toward this end when the by-product—radioactive isotopes—became available in abundant quantities.

Earlier Maj. Gen. Leslie R. Groves, chief of the atomic bomb project, authorized announcement that plans are under way for distribution possible this summer of the material.

Prior to production of the atom bomb cyclotrons were used for manufacturing isotopes, an expensive, difficult process from which tiny amounts of the material were obtained.

Now available through "power piles" of A-bomb output, isotopes of numerous kinds can be injected into human bodies afflicted with disease and their activity traced, revealing courses to be taken in treatment of the ailment.

Used For Cancer
Isotopes are believed to be of particular importance in the treatment of cancer.

The scientist said that experimentation with isotopes as tracers in plants might solve "the mystery of nature how sunlight is bottled up in the green of plants." He said this knowledge could lead to new industries, explaining:

"Sunlight could be used directly to make industrial by-products of plants such as alcohol and wood, making the plants obsolete for those purposes."

An enormous backlog of experiments assertedly await distribution of isotopes. Variety of explorations was said to depend upon the number of kinds made available to scientists.

It was further pointed out that cyclotrons which have been used primarily for output of the material can be turned back to pure physics experiments for gains in fundamental knowledge about the atom.

The scientist expressed belief that doubtless there are standing orders by all universities at the Manhattan project for an allocation of isotopes.

In 1874 the Fiji Islands were voluntarily placed under British sovereignty by their chiefs.

According to a navy spokesman, the victory-type vessel will be

POST REUNION

FORT LEWIS, Wash. — (INS) — Russell and James Niblock's brothers serving in the army, had not seen each other in nearly five years when they met accidentally in the post exchange at Fort Lewis, where they had been sent for discharge.

Another way to ruin a residence section is to be guided by short-sighted greed and make the lots about 30 feet wide.

SECOND HAND HEADACHE

CHICAGO — (INS) — Chicago's second hand dealers have an oversized headache. The merchants complain that suits they used to buy for $10 or $12 now cost them $25 of $35, their pre-war sale price. But even the increased prices fail to bring in enough hand-me-downs to supply the demand.

HIS LAST TRIP

BAKER, Ore. — (INS) — A "bad sense" which guarded Nifty, 15-year-old fox terrier, through traffic the eight years he was blind, had failed him last week. A car killed Nifty, as he was on his accustomed route, unaided to his master's office downtown.

Coal Situation Causes Alarm

Dwindling Supply Continues To Swell Ranks Of Nation's Unemployed

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 30.—(INS)—The nation's dwindling bituminous coal reserves today caused alarm among industrialists and government officials as the ranks of the unemployed continued to mount.

Steel production throughout the nation stood at a little better than 50 per cent of capacity. The automobile industry worked on a day-to-day basis. Railroads furloughed thousands of engineers, firemen, brakemen and trainmen from mine runs.

A survey showed nearly 179,000 workers in the steel and automobile industries, railroads, fabricating plants, lake and river traffic and several other industries allied to coal have been laid off.

Small steel dependent firms and fabricators cut back production for a lack of metal, and coal trucking firms in the rich bituminous coal regions have been forced to lay off thousands of drivers and helpers. Utilities and Great Lakes shipping is the latest industry to feel the effects of the 29-day-old coal work-stoppage.

Chicago faced a "brownout" to conserve dwindling coal stockpiles. The Commonwealth Edison company feared that they would have to resort to power rationing, tying up production in hundreds of industries. A spokesman for the company said their coal reserve will last only until about May 21.

MERCER JUDGE REFUSES YOUTH PAROLE PETITION

MERCER, April 30.—Judge George H. Rowley Monday refused a parole petition of James Weber, 17, of Millvale, sentenced to the George Junior Republic for involuntary manslaughter in the traffic death of Mrs. Hazel Palmer, Grove City, in September, 1944. The judge told the youth that reports had come to him which were disappointing.

Mrs. Palmer was killed on the Mercer-Sharon road near Mercer, when the car in which she was a passenger was struck by a car driven by Weber.

Have Roles As Glamour Girls In School Play

Florence Turner Joanne Leivo

"Jo" Leivo and "Flo" Turner are cast as two glamour girls for the coming senior high school play, "Ma's New Husband."

In order to break up "Ma's" romance, the daughters, upon whom the stepfather is to be inflicted, employ two night club entertainers to pose as figures from the past of the respectable, prim bridegroom-to-be.

"Jo" and "Flo" are having the time of their young lives reminding their bewildered victim of tender scenes in which he has never acted and pet names he has never used.

Joanne Elizabeth Leivo is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. U. A. Leivo of Glenmore boulevard. Florence Elizabeth Turner is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Turner of Leasure avenue.

Arrest Youth For Sending In False Alarms Of Fire

Leonard Riggins, about 19 years, 24 South Front street, was in city jail today following his arrest for turning in false fire alarms in the city.

Riggins pulled the alarm at Box 47, corner of Butler and Johns streets at 10:58 p.m. Monday, and also sent in an alarm from box 45, Allen and East Washington streets at 12:01 this morning.

Information against the youth was filed before Alderman L. C. Maest today by Robert D. Hanna, chief of police. Riggins will be arraigned for hearing soon.

Younger Slant On The Town

This was a week-end when a lot of people packed up their little suitcases and trekked off to Cleveland for a dose of the music, costumes and glamour that make up grand opera.

Roberta Street went up on Oberlin college where she is a senior this year. Dick Balaian was there, protesting that he didn't "go for long hair stuff."

Bernice Cwynar and Mary Castrucci were bucking a high wind outside of the auditorium Saturday night. Helene Edgar was seen drinking orange pop during intermission. Dorothy Magill and Audrie Cromie were dressed in formals.

Mary Shaddick bumped into Bruno Landi, tenor hero of "The Barber of Seville," inside the stage door.

Mrs. John Cassidy (Pao) Shaw was enjoying the delicious Italian food at Chef Bolardi's. Dot Wadlinger was caught leaving through "It's a Long Way to Heaven" in the book department at Taylor's.

Shirley Urban was seen trying to get into a telephone booth in the crowded corridors of the auditorium.

Cleveland claims a lot of New Castle kids as permanent (more or less) residents now, what with Eleanor Berry working for Goodwin Maxine Conway serving as secretary of the Wade Park Presbyterian church, Helene Edgar employed by "Time, Inc.," Phil Sparano attending Western Reserve and a large group working with Alcoa.

Two boys who aren't worried about the shortage of jobs are Bob Reynolds and Wilfred Craft, who are pretty far along with their plans to set up an electrical appliance and repair shop.

The only trouble is that Wilfred is still in the navy, and because of need for pharmacist's mates, isn't quite sure just when he can shed his coat of navy blue.

Wilfred is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cameron of Fairmont avenue.

Doris Ann Bennett's wedding on Sunday to Paul C. Hunter of New Jersey came near to being canceled by tragedy. Mr. Hunter, who is doing work for the navy at the Princeton university laboratories, was injured in a serious explosion in the lab last week and had to be hospitalized for a while.

In spite of his bandages, the bridegroom was on time for his wedding, however.

After a period of sailing the seas, Jim McClintock is a corporal in the army and is thinking that he should have stayed in the Merchant Marine. The pay was better and

Jap War Weapons Destroyed By Army

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Substantially all Japanese military property has now been collected and destroyed, the civil affairs division of the war department reported.

Eighth army headquarters has reported that most of the vast stores of combat equipment were surrendered in good faith. Non-combat stores have mostly been turned back to the Japanese government for redistribution to the civilian population.

The army destroyed 8000 airplanes, 13,000 aircraft engines, 100,000 machine guns, 1,650,000 rifles, 22,500 carbines and 55,000 pistols. It issued 1,400,000 swords, sabers and bayonets to American troops as trophies, along with 9150 binoculars.

Forrestal Wants Powerful America Till UN Is Proved

PITTSBURGH, April 30.—(INS)—Secretary of the Navy Forrestal today was on record for strong American military might until it has been proven that the United Nations Organization will work.

Stopping in Pittsburgh to make an "off-the-record" speech before 150 industrialists and civic leaders, Forrestal disclosed in an interview that the United States is studying an "atomic age system of defense."

This defense, he said, he hopes will be adopted by the UN for the security of the world.

Forrestal also declared that the need for bases, especially in the Pacific, has been grossly "exaggerated" and that the acquisition of permanent bases should be held to a minimum.

"Otherwise," he added, "they will be too costly to support." The atomic bomb tests scheduled for June in the Pacific were absolutely necessary, according to the secretary, adding:

"The bomb tests will have to be held if we are to know the reaction to ships from the transfer of such shock."

Forrestal was scheduled to return to Washington today to appear before the Senate naval affairs committee on hearings of the army-navy unification plan.

W. & J. College To Graduate Class Of Only 25 Seniors

WASHINGTON, Pa., April 30.—Representative of the effect of the war years, Washington and Jefferson college will graduate a class of only 25 men, despite the fact that the present enrollment is the highest in the history of the school.

Celebrating its 147th commencement, the college will honor distinguished representatives of the Presbyterian church on May 3 and 4. Dr. Harrison R. Anderson, pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian church of Chicago, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon on Friday evening, May 3, and Dr. Paul Calvin Payne, general secretary of the Presbyterian board of Christian education, will be the speaker at the commencement exercises May 4.

TEXAS MARSHAL GOES 70,000 MILES DURING PAST YEAR

SAN ANTONIO, Tex.—The navy's Logan of John the Navy and Sea the World has a contemporary among United States marshals.

That is, if most marshals get about as much as Deputy U. S. Marshal Houston Minor.

Minor's travels last year took him 70,000 miles and included a visit to 43 of the 48 states, ranging from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from Canada to the Gulf of Mexico.

His journeys, which carried him into every state but North and South Dakota, Montana, Vermont and New Hampshire, were not exactly tourists' delights, however.

Although the prisoners he was transferring usually spent the night in a bed of sorts, he often had to keep in his car—and at one time he went 46 hours without food. That happened when he was caught on the road on V-J Day when roadside cafes joined in closing for celebrations.

Cpl. Wayne C. Haswell, 523 Lawrence avenue, Ellwood City, has received his final papers at the Fort Dix, N. J., center.

Pvt. Charles T. Williams, Jr., aerial gunner and radio operator, has returned to his duties at Scott Field, Ill., after a 10-day furlough spent here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Williams, Sr., 7 North Lee avenue. While on his furlough he was greeted by his aunt, Mrs. Helen Weintraub, of Cleveland, O. Pvt. Williams was also met by his cousin, former private Charles Bupp, who is a recent dischargee of the army, serving a number of months in the ETO.

Staff Sgt. Robert Jamison of the air force of Fort Detrick, Md., is on four days furlough enroute to Wright Field, Dayton, Ohio, visiting with his wife Mrs. Laura Elizabeth Jamison of 202 North Crawford avenue, and his mother Mrs. Anna Jamison of 411 Blaine street.

City Light In Highway Offenses

Only one city motorist lost his operating card during the week ending April 19, the latest figures from the bureau of highway safety reveal. The lone driver had his license revoked for intoxication.

During the same period one New Castle driver had his card restored to him. Totals for the week show the bureau withdrew the cards of 284 drivers, with 36 revocations and 248 suspensions. Operating privileges were restored to 259 during the week.

DEGREE TEAM AT ROCHESTER MONDAY

Members of the degree team of Perry S. Gaston Post, American Legion, were in Rochester, Monday evening, where they initiated a large class of candidates, including several women who served in the various branches of the armed forces.

They were accompanied by Commander Leon A. Deane and several members of the post, and were entertained following the meeting.

Amish Farmers Fight Criticism Of Their Method

Dutch Will Not Use Tractors For Farming In Effort To Boost Food Production

LANCASTER, Pa., April 30.—(INS)—House Amish farmers in the rich Pennsylvania Dutch country sought today to spike the criticism of their time-honored farming methods leveled by an AAA official hopeful of boosting food production to help offset famine in Europe.

For the first time in their lives, two bishops of the House Amish issued statements to defend the church's mandate against the use of tractors to till the soil.

Bishop Aaron Ash, of Monterey, said "a good horse and love of hard work can produce more food than a worldly contraption."

Bishop Ben Beiler, of New Holland, emphasized that the House Amish had not "turned their backs on the starting people of Europe."

"We not only feel sorry for them," he said, "but we are putting our hearts into our plowshares and working for them."

Amish farmers in Lancaster county have been quick to point out that they have plowed their land and put in the crops while their "worldly" neighbors with tractors are either plowing or just "thinking of starting."

Farmers say that their yields per acre have been greater than those of neighbors using tractors.

The furor started when Clyde Zeiner, head of the state agricultural adjustment agency for Pennsylvania, suggested to the House Amish that by using tractors, instead of horse-drawn equipment, they could boost production of sorely-needed food.

Sam Beiler, nephew of the Bishop, sized up the controversy by stating: "I'm not one for boasting but just compare our farms with our neighbors and you'll see why we don't need tractors."

A good cabbage or cauliflower plant should be short and stocky, have a bluish, reddish or purplish color, and an abundance of young roots.

A cloudy day is best to transplant seedlings grown in frames. Pinch back tall growths to encourage branching. Shade for a couple of days until roots are well established.

In setting out aster plants mix tobacco dust with soil and later mulch with tobacco stems to circumvent root aphids.

All newly planted material—shrubs, evergreens, perennials and roses—should be kept well watered.

Tomatoes, peppers, eggplants, beans and peas produce seed pods or fruits and feed heavily on phosphorus. Potatoes, pumpkins, beets, carrots and other root crops require ample amounts of potash in the soil.

NO JOB GUARANTEE IN WORK TRAINING

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The Veterans Administration announced that "job training establishments would not have to guarantee veterans work at the end of their training" if unforeseen circumstances prevented.

However, VA will prevent an employer from taking veterans to train when he has reason to think a job will not be available, it said.

Further clarifying supervision of trainees under the GI Bill of Rights, the administration said it would not interfere with existing practices in recognized schools and on-job training places.

Paint Life ... Paint Cost ...

These are the two things every property owner should look for in the paint job he buys.

Says U. S. Cannot Feed World, But Should Aid Allies

COLUMBUS, O., April 30.—(INS)—Former U. S. Ambassador to Belgium Charles Sawyer asserted Monday that the United States "cannot feed the world" and demanded that such help as is given be "bestowed upon our allies not our enemies."

Sawyer, now a Cincinnati attorney, also questioned whether world famine is as serious as has been pictured. In an address to the Kiwanis club of Columbus.

"Each day," Sawyer declared, "brings more frantic appeals and more radical efforts to bring food from this country. I do not know what conditions are today in Europe, but I do know that when I was there a few months ago, starvation made as to starvation in Europe were exaggerated."

"It is fairly clear in reading the detailed and factual reports, rather than the headlines, that the menace is not immediate mass deaths by starvation, but lowered nutrition and dietary levels which, of course, may lead to death."

U.N. Temporary Social Commission Is Now Organized

NEW YORK, April 30.—(INS)—The United Nations temporary social commission, which is expected to take over the disbanded League of Nations' fight against white slavery and child labor, was organized Monday.

Henri Hauck, French delegate was elected acting president.

The forenoon session was devoted to procedural matters.

The commission later will work out measures to continue former League of Nations activities dealing with suppression of traffic in obscene publications, aid for illegitimate and neglected minors, recommendations on the age of admission of children to motion picture theaters, and proposals for prison reform.

Outlines Plans For Reduction Of Coal Competition

MINES DIRECTOR ADVOCATES ORDERLY PRODUCTION AND MARKETING OF COAL

CINCINNATI, O., April 30.—(INS)—U. S. Bureau of Mines Assistant Director G. A. Lamb warned mining operators Monday that they are to cope with "destructive competition" they must maintain orderly production and marketing of coal work toward lowering mining and utilization costs and develop additional uses for coal.

The warning was made at the opening session of a two-day meeting on "coal's future" at Cincinnati sponsored by the American Mining Congress.

Lamb forecast that bituminous coal will have a more favorable market than before the war, anthracite coal will strive to maintain an annual market of at least 30 million tons and excess capacity will be present in both bituminous and anthracite mining.

He added that markets for numerous sizes and kinds of coal will be as complex as ever and coal preparation will be a paramount problem, burning techniques will improve but less rapidly than after World War I and oil and natural gas competition will be severe until reserves are more definitely limited.

Dr. J. I. Yellott, director of research of the Locomotive Development committee of Blount County Research, Inc., of Baltimore, asserted that locomotives powered by coal-burning gas turbines not being developed can match the cost of diesel-fired locomotives.

He said that prospects for low cost atomic power in the near future are "not bright."

Warns Women Will Have To 'Queue Up' For Hose All Year

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., April 30.—(INS)—A prediction that women will have to queue up for nylon the rest of the year was made Monday by Earl Constantine, president of the National Association of Hosiery Manufacturers.

Constantine broke the bad news to 600 delegates attending the ninth hosiery industry conference, whose firms do a half-billion a year business.

He said nylons are turned out at the rate of 2,500,000 dozen pairs a month now and would remain at that level the rest of the year.

It may sound like a lot of nylons, Constantine said, considering there were less than 3,000,000 dozen pairs made between March, 1942 and September, 1945, but present production still falls far short of demand.

Less than two per cent is shipped to foreign countries, Constantine told hosiery manufacturers and explained.

"These limited quantities have aggravated to playground points in Latin America and have been exaggerated in amount."

Dodgers Facing First Big Test Starting Today

National League Leaders Face Cubs In Chicago, First Big Road Trip

NEW YORK, April 30.—(INS)—Major league baseball enters its second stage today as the first inter-sectional tests of the season get underway.

The eastern clubs in the National League are invading the power-packed west, while the western contenders in the American League are in the east where the Boston Red Sox and the New York Yankees are setting the pace.

Brooklyn, leading the National League race by a whisker, will get their first real test of the campaign when they face the tough Cubs and the Cardinals. They tie off against Chicago today, while New York invades St. Louis. Cincinnati entertains Boston, and Pittsburgh plays host to the Phillies.

Trade Winds Blowing
Detroit's invasion of Boston tops today's American League card, although a big crowd will be out at New York to watch the Yankees go against Cleveland's great Bob Feller. Washington entertains the White Sox, while the A's play host to the Browns.

The trade winds are blowing again as various clubs realize where their weak spots are. The Yankees' third baseman who was voted the "rookie of the year" in 1943, is expected to be discharged from the army this week and may be traded for a pitcher, possibly Red Evers of Cleveland or Walter Masterson of Washington.

The Giants have given up on First Baseman Babe Young as a converted outfielder. They have Johnny Mize at first and probably will attempt to trade Young.

Tigers Schedule Three This Week

Len Gilbert, manager of the West Side Tigers baseball team of the city league, today announced the scheduling of three exhibition games for this week, all away from home. Wednesday the Tigers will play Ryantown at Ryantown. Thursday the Tigers battle the Columbus club at Mahoningtown's E. & A. field, and Friday will play the West Pittsburgh team at West Pittsburgh. All games will start at 6 o'clock sharp (weather permitting).

North County League Elects

Name Carm DeLeone As President Of Loop For 1946 Season At Monday Meeting

District Baseball teams met last night and organized a North County baseball league for this season with six teams wanting franchises. Carm DeLeone, a returned serviceman, was elected as president of the league. DeLeone prior to entering the service headed the former city-county league.

Charles Bishop was named as vice-president, and Paul Sankey as secretary. The teams in the league so far are: New Bedford, Pulaski, Volant, Nashua, East Brook and St. Margaret's.

Meeting Next Monday
The next meeting of the league will be held at Carm's Place on West Washington street at 8 o'clock Monday, May 6, it was announced. All franchise money of $25.00 must be handed in at the next meeting and no new teams will be taken in after next Monday.

There is a strong possibility that two more teams will be added to the loop next week, making an eight-team league, President DeLeone stated today.

Revolver Club Meets Tonight

New Castle Sportsman Revolver club will have its May business meeting, one week early, when it meets tonight at the Cathedral range at 8 o'clock. It was announced by Secretary William McKee.

The meeting tonight will be followed by a practice shoot. Last week the New Castle men defeated Warren, O., in a pistol match, and hope to repeat at Warren in a return match.

Larkin Defeats Willie Joyce

BOSTON, April 30.—(INS)—Tippy Larkin today is the junior welterweight boxing champ. Larkin beat Willie Joyce at the Boston Garden last night before a small crowd of 7,728.

Larkin who was knocked down three times for the count of eight in the third round made a comeback in the fourth and went on to take the decision ten rounds to two.

Athletics Buy Outfielder Derry

PHILADELPHIA, April 30.—(INS)—The Athletics today announced the purchase of veteran outfielder Russ Derry for $7500 from the New York Yankees.

Derry, a left-handed hitter, had recently refused a Yankee assignment to their Newark farm club. He batted .225 for the New Yorkers last season.

Church Golfers Start Thursday

Opening Day Card Announced For Castle Hills, Two New Teams In Loop

New Castle church golfers will start their 1946 golf league at the Castle Hills course Thursday evening with six matches on the card, as announced today by Secretary Charles Ward. Teeing-off time is between 5:30 and 6:30 o'clock.

There are 12 teams in the league this year, more than last year. The St. Mary's team and the Temple Israel have rejoined the loop after a lapse of a few years. Both will have strong teams on the fairways.

Opening Day Schedule
Secretary Ward today submitted the opening night's schedule as follows: Temple Israel vs. St. Mary's, Tee No. 1; First Presbyterian vs. First U. P., Tee No. 10; Epworth vs. First Christians, Tee No. 1; Mahoning vs. St. Paul's Lutheran, Tee No. 10; Harbor U. P. vs. First Baptists, Tee No. 1; Highland U. P. vs. Second U. P., Tee No. 10.

The Second U. P. team will be the defending champions this year, having defeated Epworth in the playoffs last year. All of the teams with many returning servicemen in the lineup will be stronger than last season.

Indications point to a very successful season under the banner of John Cartwright as president.

Several Exempted From Qualifying For National Open

Qualifying Rounds For National Open At Cleveland Will Be On June 3

NEW YORK, April 30.—(INS)—The United States Golf Association has exempted additional players from participation in sectional qualifying rounds for the open championship, to be played at the Canterbury Golf club, Cleveland, O. June 13, 14 and 15.

The 30 lowest scorers and those tying the 30th place in the last open in 1941 will be exempt, rather than the first 25 and ties, as first intended. This change probably will be made for this year only.

Other exemptions have been granted to all former open champions; to the last amateur champion (1941), to the PGA champion, and to the professional of the club entertaining this year's open championship.

Although the players concerned will not have to play in sectional qualifying rounds to be held throughout the country on June 3, they must file entries, like all other entrants, to reach the USGA office by May 20.

This is the first time that the amateur and the PGA champions will be exempt as such. The new rule is permanent.

Zivic Loses In Bout At Omaha

Howard Blehl Of St. Paul Halts Victory String Of Aging Pittsburgher

OMAHA, Neb., April 30.—(INS)—The comeback victory string of Fritz Zivic of Pittsburgh, former welterweight champion, was broken today at 12 straight.

Four thousand Omaha fans saw Howard Blehl of St. Paul, Minn., 147½ pounds, left jab and crowd his way to a 10-round decision over Zivic last night.

The veteran made his best showing in the fifth and tenth rounds when he staggered Blehl with solid rights.

Zivic weighed 147 pounds.

Penn State's unbeaten gymnasts defeated both Army and Navy in dual competition this season.

Only one non-serviceman is listed as a starter on the 1946 Penn State baseball team.

Derby Trial At Churchill Track

Horse Fanciers Get Peek At Derby Entrants Today In Test Race

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 30.—(INS)—Horse fanciers get their last opportunity to size up Kentucky Derby entries today when 14 nominees for Saturday's $100,000 classic clash in the ninth running of the $10,000 added derby trial at Churchill Downs.

Nine horses appear almost certain starters in the classic.

May Upset Dope
No winner of the trial, a mile event, has ever won the derby. But three colts which finished second—Lawrin in 1938, Gallahedian in 1940 and Whirlaway in 1941—did win the big race.

Two winners, Bimelech in 1940 and Broadcloth in 1944, finished second in the derby. Pre-race favorites who go to the post today include Charles T. Fisher's Spv Song and Robert J. Kleberg's Texas sprinter, Assault, winner of the Wood Memorial.

Art Kahler resigned Monday as head football coach at Dickinson college in Carlisle to accept a similar post at Southwestern college in Winfield, Kan.

John Nolan, Penn State football tackle, is captain and No. 1 player on the lacrosse team.

In Scandinavia, the wedding ring is worn on the right hand.

Fair Or Foul

BY LAWTON CARVER

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 30.—Among the thousands of dollars worth of horses stabled at Churchill Downs today was a sprinkling of the three-year-old aristocrats which will make the mile and a quarter run in the $100,000 Kentucky Derby next Saturday.

The tenseness and excitement of Derby week already has set-in back behind the barns and in the midtown joints where the favorite form of vegetation among visitors is neat bouquets of mint sprouting from cocktail glasses. Juleps, they're called.

Everyone Talks Race

Through it all the interested observers and innocent bystanders manage somehow to spend about one-third of their time discussing the probable outcome of the Derby.

There are as many opinions as there are horses in the race. Not much of it is based on sentiment either. These people down here back a horse for what he is worth and make few mistakes, hence the notoriously short prices the Kentucky Track, Lexington, they establish a sound favorite, bet on him and he usually wins.

They are never far wrong on the Derby either. When they arrange a price line down here on their own classic they usually make it stick. Once in awhile, a long shot will come bouncing down, but not often.

Teams of the contract were not available at Nanticoke but it was understood a bonus had been offered.

Willard Picks Louis To Win

Says "Billy Conn Is Just Light-Heavyweight"; Sees Louis Winner In June

ROME, April 30.—(INS)—Joe Willard, former heavyweight champion of the world, described challenger Billy Conn today as "only a light-heavyweight who has put on some fat" and then added insult to injury by picking champion Joe Louis to whip Conn in the coming title fight.

He said: "Conn was tough in their last fight and almost whipped Louis. But although Joe is older than Billy, the challenger is getting older and really is only a light-heavyweight who has put on some fat. Louis is the bigger man and that counts a lot in a heavyweight fight."

Conn's only chance lies in his speed. He might have won the title last time if he had kept away from Louis, because he was ahead on points when he elected to slug it out.

Willard is touring army camps with a troupe of six wrestlers.

New York Giants Badly In Need Of Pitchers-Hitters

Giants Could Use Some Of Cardinals Surplus In Pitching Department

NEW YORK, April 30.—(INS)—The National Football league put its foot down Monday on all proposals calling for co-operation with the rival All-American conference in any way.

"Sleepy Jim" Crowley, head of the All-American conference, has been trying to get Commissioner Bert Bell of the NFL to come to an agreement with his club regarding a common player draft, annual recognition of contracts, a possible world series between the two leagues, and other working agreements.

Against Proposals
However, magnates of three NFL clubs—the New York Giants, Detroit Lions and Boston Yankees, let it be known that they were definitely against such proposals.

Unanimous agreement of the NFL magnates at their current schedule meeting would be necessary to put over any such proposal.

The Giants traded Bob Lacey, an end from Arizona State, to the Philadelphia Eagles for Gordon Pappas, an big guard who last played for the Eagles in 1943. Pappas has been coaching in Minneapolis.

Dick Pflaum, famous Chicago Bears end and a few years ago who now is coaching at Greensboro, N. C., made a working agreement with the Chicago Cardinals. The Cards will play an exhibition game at Greensboro next September.

Got Bad Start
It is an axiom that desperate situations demand bold measures. Steneham and Ott don't have to be told by their best friends, or anybody else, that their team has got off to a bad start.

As a friend of the Giants it seems to me that they have two long ball hitting first basemen in Johnny Mize and Babe Young. That would look like riches at one position that a team with a speedy outfield and weak pitching could ill afford.

It's just a suggestion. Perhaps a bad one. I have no idea what sort of market there would be for either of these fellows. But it does look as if there are several teams around that could use one of them to advantage.

Cards Need First Sacker
Even the over-stuffed Cardinals seem to have nobody behind young Dick Suler at first, and certainly George's big son is to some extent an experiment. As for Cardinal pitchers and reserve outfielders that the Giants could use, nobody needs be told that Manager Dyer's bench is crowded with em.

I realize how much easier it is to make trades on sports pages than it is in front offices. But if Lou Perrat can grab a Ray Sanders he needs badly, why can't Steneham grab a Buster Adams that his team needs just as much?

Could Use Brazle
We see from the papers that Cotton Brazle is out of the army and due to join the Cards tomorrow. Brazle is a pretty good pitcher. The Giants can use a pretty good pitcher like a kid at the circus can use an ice cream cone.

Indeed, there have been times in the past few days when it looked as though Ott could use a pitcher who was only pretty bad. Most any kind of pitcher capable of getting somebody out, I mean.

There have been talk all spring that when he came out of the service the Giants would get Brazle. How much fire there was back of the smoke of that talk we don't know. But if we can get him, let's get him now. Right away.

Legion Junior Team Heads Meet Tonight

Baseball Guild Head Contends Griffith Erred

Robert Murphy Contends President Of Washington Club Made Degradatory Remarks

BALTIMORE, Md., April 30.—(INS)—The fifth regional office of the National Labor Relations Board today investigated charges of alleged unfair labor practices filed against the Washington Nationals and their president, Clark Griffith, by the American Baseball Guild.

Labor board officials started looking into the matter—the first case of its kind in baseball history—to decide whether a hearing is merited as Griffith angrily issued a denial from his Washington office and renewed his attack on proposals of the newly-formed ball players union.

If a hearing is decided, it probably will be scheduled some time within the next few weeks at the Baltimore NLRB office which has jurisdiction over Washington.

Charges Filed
The labor board has the authority to order the Washington team to cease any alleged unfair practices if it upholds the charges filed in Baltimore by Robert Murphy, labor relations director of the Baseball Guild.

The charges declared that the Senators and especially Griffith made "statements derogatory to the Guild," did counsel and urge the players against joining the Guild; and, further, did make statements calculated to intimidate and coerce the players on the club from exercising their rights to self-organization.

Griffith Denies Charges
Griffith branded the charges "a deliberate lie." He said: "I have never talked to my players about the Guild—and I don't intend to. I have never intimidated any of them, or coerced them, into getting in or staying out—and I don't intend to."

"If they want to join, that's their business. And it's their business if they want to stay out."

Griffith declared that Murphy "apparently is shooting at my statement that his proposal to give ball players the right to sign with any team would knock baseball flat on its face." He added:

"I made the statement—and I have no intention of retracting it. The proposal is preposterous."

Washington Street's
Oldest Stores

JEWELERS HAVE GROWN WITH CITY

One of Washington street's oldest business firms, Mather Brothers Co., jewelers and silversmiths, has completed all preparations for the golden anniversary of the store's founding, which will take place tomorrow, when a dignified celebration, in keeping with the store's policy of service to the community will take place.

It was on May 1, 1896, that the late L. B. Mather and W. W. Mather opened the original store at 224 East Washington street, in the rooms later occupied by Lusk's drug store. One year later, the firm moved to its present location, at 213 East Washington street, where Mr. Mather in time purchased the building which houses the store now. In 1920 an addition was built, extending clear through from Washington street to Spencere Way. On May 1, 1943, a complete new china and glassware department was opened, which is one of the store's features. W. W. Mather, who was with the firm when it started, is now in business in Bellevue, Pa. L. B. Mather, who carried on the business for many years, passed away in 1937, and the store is now owned and operated by his son, Louis C. Mather.

For fifty years, Mather Brothers Company has endeavored to give its patrons the best in value and service, every transaction being based upon the solid foundation of integrity built by its founders. It is the firm's policy to give the citizens of New Castle and Lawrence county the best values obtainable in diamonds, watches, silver, china and glassware. Mr. Mather is assisted in the operation of the store by Miss Margaret A. Byers, who has been associated with the firm for 25 years. The store's watch repairing department is also one of the most outstanding in this section, turning out a quality of work in keeping with the store's reputation for dependability. Souvenirs will be given to the public during the first week of the store's anniversary celebration, which starts tomorrow.

Former Wife Of Cary Grant Asks
Separation From Earl Of

LONDON, April 30.—(INS)—The Countess of Jersey, thrice-married Virginia Cherrill of the American screen, sued one of England's greatest peers today for divorce.

Her husband, Ninth Earl of Jersey whom she married nine years ago, did not contest the suit. Previously the wife of Irving Adler, prominent Chicago industrialist, and later of screen star Gary Grant, the beautiful blonde Illinois farm girl stepped into the ranks of the noble British family on July 6, 1937.

She married the English nobleman, two years her junior, at the Chelsea registrar's office which was only a few miles from where she had married Grant three years earlier.

In 1934, Virginia married Grant after a whirlwind romance. Scarcely a year later, she divorced him at Los Angeles on March 26, 1935, charging:

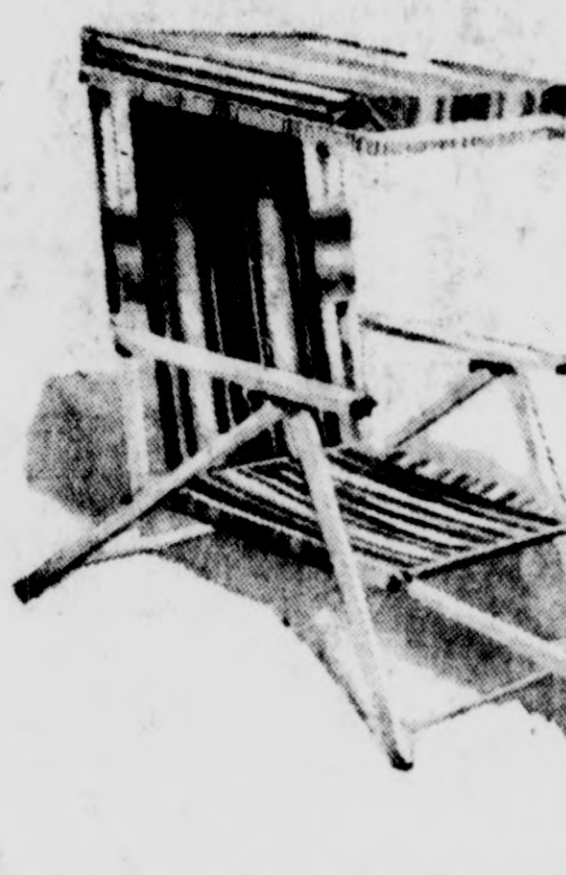

"He was very sulen and disagreeable."

Prior to marrying Virginia, the Peer had been divorced from the former Miss Patricia Kenneth Richards of Cootamundra, New South Wales, Australia. They had one daughter.

Besides her three marriages, Virginia's name had been linked romantically with Chaplin, and William Rhineland Stewart, New York socialite whom she once was expected to marry aboard Vincent Astor's yacht near Hawaii.
